

STILL THAT FEELING'S THERE

©1986 Stephen John Minotti

Keep a hold on to me and don't you ever let me go
I want to be in your arms when the morning comes
You make loving you easy something special in your touch
And that's just how I pictured it to be in my fantasy

I said I love you
Is that so hard on you
Want you to need me as much as I need you
Just put some trust in me I'll make your dreams come true
It's true

And I don't know how much longer I can hold out
It's been some time, still that feeling's there
She warms me deep inside even when it's cold out
It just got colder and lonely without you there (ah-ha)

Try to close my eyes you know I can't sleep at night
Because I know my reverie will abandon me

I said I love you
Is that so hard on you
Want you to need me as much as I need you
Just put some trust in me I'll make your dreams come true
It's true (I love you)

And I don't know how much longer I can hold out
It's been some time, still that feeling's there

And her love's not for sale she says she'll never sell out
Because it's the simple things that gonna keep her there (ah-ha)

Keep a hold on to me and don't you ever let me go.....
