

TASTE OF YOU

©2007 Stephen John Minotti

You really took me by surprise
Didn't see it coming
Until I looked into your eyes
You hit that spot so deep inside

That it makes me tender and a little bit shy
One taste of you and I get so high
How do you do that thing that you do
Can't let another day go by without saying

I love....you
And I dream....of you
And I miss....your kiss
Oh I....mmmmm

I don't need a photograph
I can close my eyes I can dream about you
I don't need to feel your touch
Cause you're already holding my heart in your hands

No I don't want to leave
But we both know it's time to go
Cause the more I stay around the more I

Want....want you
And I dream....dream of you
And I miss....miss your kiss
I love you

As I turned and walked away
I could have sworn I heard you say

That you loved....me
And you dream....of me
And you missed....me too
Because I love....you
